

Barring new applicants in these categories is not unreasonable, but rejecting those already waiting would be callous in the extreme. Yet last week the committee balked at even refunding the $80 application fee these aspiring immigrants have each paid. Slam the door in their face, but only after taking their money—it's not exactly the American way.

Members of Congress from both parties should have no trouble with the bill's resolute measures to fight illegal immigration. But they can approve those without agreeing that legal immigrants are a problem in need of such harsh solutions.●

ORDERS FOR FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1995

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 10 a.m., Friday, November 3; that following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and there then be a period for the transaction of morning business until 1 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 5 minutes each, with the following exceptions: Senator THOMAS, 60 minutes; Senator DASCHLE or his designee, 60 minutes; Senator MURKOWSKI, 20 minutes; Senator GRAHAM of Florida, 20 minutes; Senator GRAMS, 10 minutes; Senator GRASSLEY, 10 minutes, and Senator CRAIG, 10 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, the Senate will be in a period of morning business until 1 p.m. At 1 p.m. the Senate could turn to any legislative item cleared for action. Therefore, votes are a possibility.

Also, Senators should be reminded that the majority leader has announced that the Senate will adjourn for the Thanksgiving holiday at the close of business on Friday, November 17, to reconvene on Monday, November 27.

This coming Monday, it is hopeful that the Senate will be able to turn to the State Department reorganization bill, which has a previous consent of 4 hours. However, no votes will occur on Monday.

Mr. President, let me indicate that I know there are a number of matters that will be coming out of committee in the next few days. It may be that there will be an opportunity to proceed to some minor—I should not say minor, they are very important pieces of legislation, but are those which have no opposition or real problems from either side. We would like to dispose of some of those bills in the next 2 weeks.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, if there be no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 5:44 p.m., adjourned until Friday, November 3, 1995, at 10 a.m.
